Student Attendance Policy

1. An instructor may exclude a student who is absent for more hours than the class meets per week or 20% of the total class hours (3 ½ hours for this class).
2. In addition, an instructor may equate three or more late arrivals to or early departures from class as an absence for purposes of class attendance.

Academic Dishonesty Policy

A violation of Academic Integrity of any type by a student provides grounds for disciplinary action by the instructor or college. Violations of Academic Integrity include but are not limited to: cheating on an exam, plagiarism, working together on an assignment, paper or project when the instructor has specifically stated students should not do so, submitting the same term paper to more than one instructor, or allowing another individual to assume one's identity for purpose of enhancing one's grade. Please refer to the LACCD student code of conduct as it relates to student dishonesty (Board Rule 9803.28)
